

Mule Deer Restoration Committee Charter

The Mule Deer Restoration Committee will investigate mule deer status, factors affecting mule deer populations in Nevada, and review relevant scientific documentation. The Committee will present recommendations on appropriate mule deer management policies, regulations and practices to the Nevada Board of Wildlife Commissioners. Any and all recommendations will be based upon the best science available.