RICHARD L. HASKINS II
Deputy Director

Dear Instructor:

In January 1997 the Omnibus Appropriations Act of 1997 was signed into law. One part of the Act amended the gun control Act of 1968 to make it unlawful for any person convicted of a "misdemeanor crime of domestic violence" to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition. It also makes it unlawful for any person to sell or otherwise dispose of a firearm or ammunition to any person knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that the recipient has been convicted of such a misdemeanor. This applies to all employees of the Department of Wildlife and as such to all Hunter Education instructors. The provision is retroactive, without limitation. So, any conviction, at any time in the past, applies to this provision.

If you have such a conviction for domestic violence on your record, regardless of the circumstances, you are not eligible to teach with firearms. For this reason, we are requiring you to sign the form below and return it to us in the enclosed envelope.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Mayer
Director
