Nevada Board of Wildlife Commissioners
2016 WAYNE E. KIRCH
NEVADA WILDLIFE CONSERVATION AWARD

GUIDELINES

Frequency of Award: Presented to one individual, nonprofit organization, outdoor sports club or business annually. This year's award is for 2016.

Judging Panel:

The recipient will be selected by a judging panel made up of two wildlife commissioners, one Department staff member, Marlene Kirch, daughter of former commissioner Wayne E. Kirch and four County Advisory Board to Manage Wildlife members or Outdoor groups.

Judging Criteria: Selection of the winning nominee will be made solely from the official Conservation Award nomination form. The following criteria will be considered in evaluating nominees:

- A. Time and depth of commitment to conservation, management, or enhancement of wildlife in the state of Nevada during the current calendar year 2016.
- B. Influence of the person/project on the public and in presenting positive public relations in regard to wildlife conservation in Nevada.
- C. Quantity and quality of measurable results for wildlife conservation.
- D. Obstacles, difficulties and personal sacrifice involved in meeting wildlife conservation goals.

Criteria Changes: After adoption by the Board of Wildlife Commissioners, these criteria can only be changed by the Commission at least six months prior to the selection of any nominee.

Type of Award: Wood and metal perpetual plaque to which each year's recipient's name will be added. Each recipient will receive a smaller version to commemorate the award. The perpetual plaque is permanently displayed at the Nevada Department of Wildlife headquarters office.

Nomination Deadline: November 15, 2016; 5:00 p.m.

Purpose of the Award: To bestow richly deserved honor on the individual, nonprofit organization, outdoor sports club, or business for the achievement of significant results toward the conservation, management or enhancement of wildlife in the State of Nevada during the calendar year preceding the award.

About the Award: The award will be known as the "WAYNE E. KIRCH NEVADA WILDLIFE CONSERVATION AWARD" so named for Fish and Game Commissioner Wayne Kirch who served on the Fish and Game Commission for over 25 years, the longest tenure on the boards since its inception in 1877. Mr. Kirch passed away in 1989.

The award is sponsored by Marlene Kirch, daughter of Wayne E. Kirch.
