Sec. 2. For the purposes of section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 404, chapter 428, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 2657, and section 3 of this regulation, an “extenuating circumstance” does not include an outbreak of disease in wildlife populations or a natural disaster.

Sec. 3. 1. In accordance with the requirements of this section, the holder of a tag who is diagnosed as terminally ill pursuant to NRS 449A.081, after being notified the tag was drawn, but before legal shooting hours on the first day of his or her hunt, may:

(a) Transfer the tag to another person who is otherwise eligible to hunt a big game mammal in this State

2. In accordance with the requirements of this section, the holder of a tag who incurs an extenuating circumstance provided in subsection 3 after the last business day before the hunt begins pursuant to NAC 502.422, but before legal shooting hours on the first day of the hunt may:

- (a) Defer the use of the tag for the most similar privilege in the same management unit, weapon class, and hunting season the following year; or*
- (b) Return the tag to the Department for restoration of any bonus points that he or she used to obtain the tag that is being returned.*

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the Department shall allow the holder of a tag to return or defer a tag pursuant to subsection 1 if any of the following extenuating circumstances occur:

- (a) The death of a family member of the holder of the tag, as verified by a certificate of death;*
- (b) The holder of the tag or a family member of the holder of the tag incurs an unanticipated, severe, catastrophic event, injury, or illness which prevents him or her from hunting during the season for which the tag was issued, as verified in writing by a physician;*
 - (1) "Hunting" has the meaning prescribed in NRS 501.050*

(c) The holder is serving in the Armed Forces of the United States and is transferred to a location which makes it impracticable for the holder to hunt in the area for which the tag was issued, as verified by a copy of his or her orders or other proof satisfactory to the Department

(d) Removed.

- 4. If a tag is transferred to another person pursuant to this section, both the original holder of the tag and the new recipient will be treated as if he or she drew the tag with respect to any applicable waiting periods and bonus points.*
- 5. The provisions of this section do not apply to the holder of a tag who is serving in the Armed Forces of the United States if he or she defers the use of a tag pursuant to NAC 502.336.*

6. The original holder of the tag has up to 14 business days after the start of the hunt to return the tag to the Department. The Department has 5 business days to process the return for bonus points, deferral, or transfer. The original tag holder must submit evidence of the extenuating circumstance and attest that they did not hunt on the tag.

7. The Department shall update the Commission on all tags that are transferred or deferred pursuant to this section.

8. As used in this section, “family member” has the meaning ascribed to it in section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 404, chapter 428, Statutes of Nevada 2019, at page 2657.
