It provides more efficiency in scheduling appeals, will define that "calendar" days are used for calculation of deadlines, and more clearly notify the appellant in advance of a hearing that the commission has limited jurisdiction. It will also provide for two, separate attorneys general (one for the commission and one for the department) to avoid conflicts with one attorney advising two sides of the appeal. The commission held a workshop in Reno, on August 12, 2016, where the commission asked to include information regarding the notice to the appellant and also to insert language that if a party fails to file certain information within 14 days, they may waive their right to a hearing on the appeal.
