3. New applicants must include the following documents described below.

A.) A copy of the applicant's current and valid master falconry license.

B.) A copy of the applicant's current and valid hunting license issued pursuant to chapter 502 of NRS.

C.) If the applicant is a raptor rehabilitator or assisting a licensed raptor rehabilitator, a copy of the applicant's permit to rehabilitate raptors issued pursuant to NAC 503.315 or letter from the licensed rehabilitator who is requesting and authorizing assistance from the applicant.

D.) Two letters of reference from persons who hold verifiable master falconry licenses in this State or another state and who lawfully possess a golden eagle in the United States. Please include contact information. Each letter must:

(1) Assess the applicant's ability to care for golden eagles and fly golden eagles in Falconry, and

(2) Contain a concise history of the author's experience with golden eagles, including, without limitation, whether the author has experience in handling golden eagles in zoos, rehabilitating golden eagles or scientifically studying golden eagles.

E.) A narrative explanation of the applicant's direct experience with golden eagles or other large raptors. The narrative explanation must include, without limitation, information about the species of raptor with which the applicant has direct experience and the type and duration of activity in which the applicant acquired such direct experience.

F.) Proof that the facility in which the applicant will house a golden eagle conforms to the requirements of NAC 503.375 to 503.395, inclusive, and is large enough to allow the eagle to fly if it is untethered or, if tethered, to fully extend its wings or bate, without damaging its feathers or contacting other raptors. Photos and diagrams are beneficial. An inspection of mew facilities will be completed by the department prior to any issuing of an eagle permit. Inspections may occur on an annual or as needed basis.

4. Renewal applicants must resubmit the documents of their originally approved application.

5. The Department is authorized to request any additional information determined necessary and related to whether the applicant will safely and humanely house, care for, and possess a golden eagle.

I, the signator, in signing this application, hereby state that I am entitled to this license under the laws of the State of Nevada and that no false information or false statement has been made by me to obtain this license.
